Manager Chance Too Ill to Come to Washington With His Team This Trip.

NEW YORK, May 4.—Manager Frank Chance of the New York Americans is still staying pretty close to his rooms at the Hotel Colonial. He was able to take a drive yesterday afternoon, but immediately retired on his return.

"I have a sore spot in my right breast," said Chance, "and I feel run down generally. I'm weak as a kitten, to boot. My cold has improved wonderfully the last two days and I think I shall be around by the middle of the week if the weather will only stay fine. I guess I will not go to Washington this trip. But I hope to be ready to catch the boys coming through to Boston Wednesday night."

President Frank J. Farrell, who was in consultation with Chance for several hours yesterday, for Washington last night. He will remain with the club. He is going over simply to root for Capt. Peckinpaugh and his Chance-less youngsters.

The Fearless Leader was not a bit cast down over Secretary Farrell's remarks.

"It was simply a case of a bunch of kids going up into the air," he said. "I was surprised." Now, I'd rather see them drop one like that than lose out like we did twice in Philadelphia. It is not so demoralizing or nerve getting. Every club must figure upon such a showing up once in a while.

"I'm not sure of my players, they will not let a little thing like that worry them. I want them to see that they have with Griffith before they leave his town."

"It was almost worth the wallowing," concluded Chance, "to see that Truesdale finally found his batting eye. He got two more than I did. I'm glad to see him get his confidence. He hadn't been batting for all fall spring, and like all players in a slump was worried to death about it."

COMSTOCK LET GO.

Big Pitcher Will Finish Season as Member of Providence Team

Special Dispatch to The Star.

DETROIT, Mich., May 2.—Ralph Comstock, the young epic ball pitcher for whom Detroit paid Minneapolis $10,000,
last August, will be sent to Providence
this week. He has been in the American Association and pitched some games for the Tigers that indicated he can be a star in the American League.
He considered his stay in Detroit so secure that he failed to train properly this spring; also he is liable to have a bad inning in his next appearance, and, in control, though generally he can command his "stuff." He will be instructed to try to master this stuff, and to come back next spring prepared to show he is worth what was paid for him.

junior event at the People's regatta in Philadelphia on the fourth of July over a large field consisting of the best crews in this part of the country. The prospects are bright for a successful success, as the members of last year's boat have signified their intention of competing with the best material at hand gives promise of a capable junior crew.

SUMMER BASE BALL.

College Officials Trying to Improve the Game.

NEW YORK, May 4.—In the report of the committee appointed by the National Collegiate Athletic Association to consider and report upon what methods the association might take to rid base ball of its objectionable features, the committee says that it decided not to investigate the question of eligibility and summer ball, but to consider "what is appropriate and desirable in the conduct of the game itself, in order that the managers of the various college sponsors may be uniformly those of gentlemen.

team announces that a new trophy has been offered for the midwestern championship and invitations to participate in a tournament will be sent out at once.

Clubs at Cincinnati, Pittsburgh, St. Louis, Kansas City, Denver and other western cities will be asked to aid in arranging the tournament. The new trophy must be won three consecutive years before passing into the ownership of the winning club.

John Heydler's Golf Experience.

NEW YORK, May 4.—Odd golfing experiences are narrated by such gifted players as Travers, Hilton, Goumet, Ray, Vardon, Evans, McDermott and Heydler, and now the last named, but far from least, of this group tells of one which befell him at Pinehurst. On course No. 1 he drove from a tee at the top of
